

KENTUCKY STATE
CRIME STOPPERS ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED
IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

Monday, November 2, 2009

Tim W. Thomas, of Madisonville, KY, has been elected President of the Kentucky State Crime Stoppers Association Incorporated at their annual state conference on Friday, October 30, 2009, in Louisville, KY. Mr. Thomas will oversee Crime Stoppers organizations across the state. He will be responsible for formulating the strategic growth of the association as well as putting together a public relations campaign for the state Crime Stoppers, Inc. Thomas is President of the Hopkins County Crime Stoppers, Inc., and serves on many local boards and he represents the First Supreme Court District as Commissioner of the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights. He was appointed to that position in September, 2008 by Governor Steve Beshear.

Signed off By

Donna Collins,
State Secretary,
Lexington, KY